

Veteran's Benefits Basics 2017 updated 12/1/16

IMPROVED PENSION HOUSEBOUND OR AID & ATTENDANCE

VETERAN/SPOUSE:

- Must be permanently and totally disabled, or age 65+
- Disability does not have to be related to military duty (this is a non-service connected pension)
- Veteran must have served on active duty at least 90 consecutive days, and at least 1 day during a "period of war" (no requirement of being in the theatre of war)
- Discharge cannot have been dishonorable
- Surviving spouse qualifies based on veteran's service record

OFFICIAL DATES FOR PERIODS OF WAR FOR NON-SERVICE CONNECTED PENSIONS:

- WWI: 4/6/17 – 11/11/18 (if in Russia, end date is 4/1/20)
- WWII: 12/7/41 – 12/31/46 (end date for Merchant Marines 8/15/45)
- Korea 6/27/50 – 1/31/55
- Vietnam 8/5/64 – 5/7/75 (start date of 2/28/61 for vets who served "in country" which would include a layover! before 8/5/64)
- Persian Gulf 8/2/90 – present

NEED & INCOME/ASSET CRITERIA

- Pension is needs based
- Analysis must be done to see the extent of the need for assistance for qualifying.
- In order to qualify for higher benefit amounts, a qualifying medical diagnosis affecting activities of daily living (ADLs) must be obtained
- Eligibility for benefits determined by analysis of income vs. cost of care
- Specific asset limits, BUT there are safe solutions and acceptable planning techniques to protect assets and qualify for this important benefit

MAXIMUM PENSION RATES FOR "AID & ATTENDANCE"

NON-SERVICE CONNECTED CLAIMS effective 12/1/16:

Type of Claim:	Maximum Annual Rate	Maximum Monthly Rate
Veteran:
Aid and Attendance Veteran, Single	$21,531.00	$1,794.00
Aid and Attendance Veteran, Married	$25,525.00	$2,127.00
<small>(Note: benefit amounts will be higher for veterans who are married to veterans)</small>
Surviving Spouse of a Veteran:
Aid and Attendance Surviving Spouse, No Dependents	$13,836.00	$1,153.00

*Benefit amounts will be lower if veteran qualifies only for "housebound" or "basic" pensions only.

If you think you or a family member or client may qualify for this important benefit, call our office for an evaluation.

THE SHORE LAW FIRM

120 NORTH MAIN ST., SUITE 302, ATTLEBORO, MA 02703
(508) 226-4400

WWW.TSLFELDERLAW.COM

The above information is meant only to provide general information and should not be considered legal advice.